CROSSING THE STRAIT OF MESSINA

Today (Sept 22nd) at approximately 7:00pm the Celebrity Edge will be passing through the ‘Strait of Messina’, crossing between the eastern tip of Sicily and the western tip of Calabria in Southern Italy. The ‘Strait of Messina’ connects the Tyrrhenian Sea to the north with the Ionian Sea to the south, within the central Mediterranean. Time may vary as it is highly subjected to sea traffic on that day.

AIR FILTRATION: 100% FRESH, FILTERED AIR

As part of our “HEALTHY AT SEA” protocols and to prevent illnesses, our HVAC system continuously intakes 100% fresh ocean air, filtering it for supply to all indoor rooms and areas. You can breathe easy knowing that risks from the transmission of aerosol particles between spaces (like those from a cough) are extremely low.

TODAY'S TIPS

HEALTH TIP

As part of our “Healthy At Sea” protocol to prevent illnesses, wash your hands with soap & warm water regularly, especially after using the bathroom and before eating.
