Any item forfeited or removed may be disposed of by Carrier or turned over to appropriate authorities.

16. Physical Disability/Wheelchairs: Mandated safety requirements in the construction and operation of the Vessel, inherently restrict maneuverability in many areas. Consequently, the Vessel is not suitable for persons with disabilities or use wheelchair by shore-based standards. In this respect, the anticipated natural movements of a vessel at sea should be considered. If any doubt exists about the ability of a passenger to accept such conditions, they are advised not to travel on the Vessel. Carrier reserves the right to refuse or revoke passage to anyone who, in its sole judgment, is unfit to travel on the Vessel or who may require attention beyond that which the Vessel can provide. Passengers may also be required to sign a statement releasing AE from all responsibility relative to the use of shipboard facilities and in the event of an emergency.

17. Medical Personnel: Due to the nature of travel by water, availability of medical care may be limited or delayed, and medical evacuation may not be possible from the Vessel while at sea or from every location the Vessel sails. The Vessel will carry a doctor and/or nurse. Any medical personnel provided are provided solely as a convenience to the Passenger and are not provided for allowing persons with any medical conditions to travel. The Vessel does not have x-ray equipment or hospital facilities. The doctor and/or nurse are independent contractors and are available on the Vessel solely for the convenience of the Passenger, work directly with the Passenger, and shall not be deemed acting as agents and representatives of the Carrier. Carrier assumes no liability whatsoever for any treatment, failure to treat, diagnosis, misdiagnosis, actual or alleged malpractice, advice, examination, or other services provided by such persons or entities. Carrier does not provide medical services. Passengers shall pay for all medical care requested or required, including the cost of any medical care, transportation or evacuation and shall reimburse Carrier for the cost of any medical care, transportation or evacuation required by Passenger, but incurred by Carrier.

18. Identification - Passengers certify that they are qualified to enter and exit countries visited within the confirmed travel program and/or cruise(s) and/or have obtained necessary visas accordingly. All Passports, Visas, Public Health Documents, and other travel documents required for embarkation or disembarkation are to be obtained by and are the sole responsibility of the Passenger. It is the sole responsibility of the Passenger to determine what travel documents are required. Carrier reserves the right to deny boarding to any Passenger who does not possess all necessary travel documents, who does not provide the required medical information correctly and transparently, or who is considered as ill or "unfit to travel" by the ship's doctor and/or nurse. . In the event a Passenger is denied boarding, Carrier shall have no duty or obligation to refund the Passenger's fare. Passenger, or if a minor, their guardian, shall be liable to Carrier for any fines or penalties imposed on Carrier by any government, governmental authority or port for failure of the Passenger to observe or comply with laws or regulations, including requirements relating to immigration, customs or excise taxes or fees.

19. Cancellation, Deviation or Substitution by Carrier: Carrier may for any reason, at any time and without prior notice, cancel, advance, postpone or deviate from any scheduled sailing, port of call, destination, lodging or any activity on or off the Vessel, or substitute another vessel or port of call, destination, lodging or activity. Carrier shall not be liable for any claim whatsoever by Passenger, including but not limited to loss, compensation, or refund, because of such cancellation, advancement, postponement, substitution or deviation.

By way of example, and not limitation, Carrier may, without liability, deviate from any scheduled sailing and may otherwise land Passenger and his/her property at any port if Carrier believes that the voyage or any Passenger or property may be hindered or adversely affected as a result of hostilities, blockages, prevailing weather conditions, labor conflicts, strikes onboard or ashore, breakdown of Vessel, congestion, docking difficulties, medical or lifesaving emergencies or any other cause whatsoever.

Carrier shall have the right to comply with any orders, recommendations, or directions whatsoever given by any governmental entity or by persons purporting to act with such authority; and such compliance shall not be deemed a breach of this Agreement entitling the Passenger to assert any claim for liability, compensation or refund.

20. If any provision of this Agreement is determined in any jurisdiction to be unenforceable for any reason, it shall be deemed severed from this Agreement and all remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

21. Children and Minors onboard: Minors under the age of 18 must be travelling with a parent or responsible adult over the age of 21 in the same stateroom as well as on shore excursions for the duration of the voyage. If the minor is not travelling with a parent, a Child Travel Consent Form must be signed by a parent or legal guardian and received by AE prior to the release of travel documents.

As we travel in remote areas and for safety reasons, AE cannot accommodate children under 8 years of age (weight of 29 kg and 1.2 m. tall). Although AE accepts children over 8 years of age there is no childcare or special programming onboard. In addition, safety harnesses and seating equipment are not provided for children onboard any AE excursion or shuttle service. Guests may use their own approved safety harnesses and seating equipment provided the vehicles have compatible equipment to safely secure the child. This equipment is not guaranteed, and AE reserves the right to refuse any child above the age of 8 years of age and below 14 years of age on any shore excursion or shuttle for safety concerns.

Please note that for Antarctica voyages, AE recommends children to be of 12 years of age or older and must be accompanied by a responsible adult during all landings and onboard.

Passengers must be 21 years or older to consume or purchase alcohol onboard. AE reserves the right to refuse to serve anyone who in its sole judgment is deemed impaired and a risk to the health and safety of passengers and ship's crew.

22. Smoking policies: Smoking is permitted in designated outside areas only. Smoking is strictly prohibited anywhere inside the Vessel including all cabins. Violators will be assessed up to a USD 5,000 fee to cover additional cleaning costs. Should the smoking violation become known after the guest has left the Vessel, we reserve the right to make a charge to the Passenger's credit/debit card or send an invoice for the amount to the registered address.

23. Property damage policy: We reserve the right to charge guests the cost of rectifying damage, caused by the deliberate, negligent, or reckless act of the guest to the Vessel's property or structure. Should this damage become known after the guest has left the Vessel, we reserve the right to make a charge to the guest's credit / debit card or send an invoice for the amount to the registered address.

24. Removal of property policy: We reserve the right to charge guests the cost of replacing any items that are removed from the Vessel by them without consent. The charge will be the full replacement amount of the missing item, including any carriage charges. Should the fact that the item is missing become known after the guest has left the Vessel, we reserve the right to make a charge to the guest's credit/debit card, or send an invoice for the amount to the registered address.

25. Photographs/Video: Carrier has the exclusive right to include photographic, video and other visual portrayals of Passenger in any pictorial medium of any nature whatsoever for the purpose of trade, advertising, sales, publicity or otherwise, without compensation to Passenger, and all rights, title and interest therein (including all copyrights therein) shall be Carrier's sole property, free from any claims by Passenger or any person deriving any rights or interest from Passenger.
26. Travelling in the polar regions may involve risk and potential exposure to injury, including emotional injury, injury to person or property and death. Passenger understands this and will hold Carrier free of liability relating to any issues arising from the trip to the Polar Regions.
27. Passenger shall follow and abide to all instructions by The Master of the Vessel and Carrier's expedition crew. These instructions may involve disembarking or embarking Zodiacs, fire and evacuation drills onboard Carrier's vessel. Passenger agrees to participate in all mandatory briefings, drills and instructions announced by the Master and/or Expedition staff. Passenger always agrees to adhere to the Expedition staff's guidelines during the voyage. The passenger will be familiarized with International Association of Antarctica Tour Operators (IAATO) Visitor Guidelines for Antarctica and Association of Arctic Expeditions Cruise Operators (AECO) and will be briefed by Carrier at the beginning of the voyage.
28. Itinerary stated from Passenger's Sales Agent is the intended itinerary of AE but Passenger shall be aware that due to conditions of weather, ocean, ice and governmental restrictions AE and the Master of the Vessel have full right to change in the itinerary as they deem fit.
29. To participate in this voyage a medical evacuation insurance coverage is mandatory for all Passengers. AE has a minimum requirement of an Emergency Evacuation insurance of USD 200,000 per Passenger, as well as printed proof of insurance available for our Expedition staff if requested while onboard the Vessel. The medical insurance must be able to cover all existing health issues the Passenger might have. It must also cover medical treatment and medical evacuation in any of the areas traveled. AE is not responsible for any medical or health issues arising during the voyage. In case of an emergency medical situation, AE will seek to find the closest location on the voyage from where medical treatment and evacuation can be performed. The Master, medical staff, and AE's Expedition Leader, shall decide the course of action related to any emergency medical situation together and the Passenger accepts this condition prior to embarkation.
30. The passenger understands that traveling to Polar destinations in the expedition manner that AE conducts will require the need to climb stairways embark and disembark from a Zodiac under both wet and dry conditions; and transportation with a Zodiac can result in clothing or any other object held by the passenger come in contact with ocean water.
31. -AE is not liable for any other services sold or advertised in relation to this ticket. AE is therefore not liable nor responsible for any package travel products sold by travel agencies, travel clubs or travel websites in connection with this ticket.

In such cases the Guest concerned shall not be entitled to any refund of the holiday cost or compensation of any kind. Additionally, we will have no liability for any costs or expenses they incur as a result. In cases of quarantine of the ship involving detention of guests, each Guest must bear all risk and expense thereby caused and will be charged for food and accommodation during the period of detention, payable day by day, if maintained on board the ship, and for all other quarantine fees and expenses assessed or incurred in respect of the Guest.
33. Additional Terms & Conditions for all Fly/Cruise ("Fly the Drake") products

Due to the nature of fly-cruise to Antarctica, weather conditions may delay or require a cancellation of the remaining itinerary after 2 days of attempts to operate flights: IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES ALBATROS EXPEDITIONS WILL OFFER PASSENGERS A FULL REFUND ON THE CRUISE FARE IN THE EVENT OF TRIP INTERRUPTION IF THE CHARTER FLIGHT IS NOT ABLE TO TAKE OFF BY THE END OF THE DAY OF THE FINAL DAY OF ATTEMPTS. ALBATROS EXPEDITIONS WILL HAVE NO FURTHER LIABILITY WHATSOEVER.

The interruption policy is set forth in the Contingency Plan below.

Contingency Plan: Albatros Expeditions Fly-Cruise

Albatros Expeditions will make every effort to ensure the fly-cruise programs take place, but due to weather conditions, flying in this region can be difficult and is beyond the control of Albatros Expeditions.

For our 7-night Antarctica Fly-Cruise programs, the last itinerary day on which an attempt will be made will be day 4,

For our 12-night Antarctica & South Georgia Fly-Cruise program, the last itinerary day on which an attempt will be made will be day 6

International airfare, domestic airfare, any additional services purchased or change fees, will not be refunded by Albatros Expeditions. Albatros Expeditions will provide a trip interruption letter to be submitted by the passenger to their insurance company for airfare, change fees, and other expenses incurred due to the trip interruption.

Albatros Expeditions will issue the cruise fare refund back in the same form/medium in which payment was received.

Contingency Plan Itinerary

Day 1

Albatros Expeditions reserves the right to send passengers on the charter plane the evening prior to the scheduled day (day 2). This may happen when we see a weather system that could cause a delay on subsequent days. It is for this reason that we request all passengers to arrive in Punta Arenas (PUQ) no later than 3:00pm on Day 1. There will be no refunds for passengers who miss the charter plane departure due to an arrival in Punta Arenas airport (PUQ) after 3:00pm.

Day 2, 3, 4, 5, 6

For each day of the itinerary after Day 1, if there is a delay, all guests will be briefed by the Albatros Expeditions ground staff on the flight status. Often, we are waiting for a weather window to depart and could be required to leave with very little notice. All guests and staff will be on stand-by until notified by the Albatros Expeditions ground staff.

During the stand-by period, you must be at the airport, or at another location designated by the Albatros Expeditions ground staff to be ready to go if a suitably long weather window becomes available. There will be no refunds for passengers who miss the charter plane departure due to being unavailable and/or unreachable for our ground staff while waiting for a weather window. If an opportunity to fly does not present itself, you will be returned to your respective hotels. Albatros Expeditions will provide additional night(s) hotel accommodation and standard meals until the morning after the last itinerary day for flight attempts.

Albatros Expeditions reserves the right to make exceptions to the timing guidelines outlined in this section.

Priority of Flight Departure

In some cases, there are instances where more than one operator is waiting for a weather window to fly passengers to Antarctica using the same charter planes. In these cases, the priority is given to the passengers who were first delayed.

Last Itinerary Day for Flight Attempts

If the charter flight is unable to fly on the final itinerary attempt day for any reason (with such final day being Day 4 for the Antarctica Fly Cruise and Day 6 for the Antarctica & South Georgia Fly Cruise), Albatros Expeditions will officially interrupt the voyage and offer to rebook passengers on an alternative future voyage free of charge in the same cabin category or higher. If an alternative future voyage is not suitable, then Albatros Expeditions will issue a full refund for the full cruise fare without any further obligation or liability on the part of Albatros Expeditions.

In order for passengers to obtain reimbursement for their airfare and potentially other costs to change flights, Albatros Expeditions will provide trip interruption letters for all clients to provide to all passengers to submit to their travel insurance providers under the trip delay/interruption and cancellation clause (provided passengers have included airfare to be covered in their travel protection plan). Albatros Expeditions will provide one final additional night hotel accommodation for those guests on the day of cancellation. Any additional hotel nights and meals hereafter will be the responsibility of the guests.

Returning Passengers

Passengers on board the Vessel during these delays will remain on board at no additional cost until the time in which the charter flight is able to arrange transport. Full board and excursions (excluding kayaking) are included. Albatros Expeditions advises all clients to book changeable airlines tickets along with cancellation and interruption insurance to assist with additional airline change fees. We advise all passengers to have flexible travel arrangements upon disembarkation of the voyage if delays arise. It is recommended to arrange return flights from Punta Arenas no earlier than the afternoon after arriving back in Punta Arenas – preferable the next day. Albatros Expeditions will not be held responsible for any change/cancellation fees or additional costs due to weather related delays or any other delays arising from force majeure when returning from the Vessel. No refund will be issued for any reason whatsoever. At the discretion of Albatros Expeditions, the Vessel's Master and/or our Expedition Leader reserve the right to sail the Drake passage to a port of call for any reason whatsoever including, but not limited to, any Force Majeure Event.

FOR CANCELLATION DUE TO ALL OTHER EVENTS OF FORCE MAJEURE, THE STANDARD NON-CONTINGENCY PLAN TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF Albatros Expeditions SHALL APPLY.

Flight Changes due to Interrupted or Delayed Voyage

For faster service Albatros Expeditions strongly recommends that all clients or passengers contact the Airline they are traveling on for changes directly.

If flights booked with Albatros Expeditions: Albatros Expeditions ground staff can assist passengers that have booked their flights with Albatros Expeditions to make necessary flight changes. Any additional costs such as change fees or other additional costs are the responsibility of the passenger.

If flights are booked with an external agent: You must contact that agent or the airline directly to change your flights as Albatros Expeditions ground staff are not able to access your flight information to make the necessary changes.
